Section 1. Existing Course Title and Description

Prefix &amp; No.	Course Title	Credits
CMST 101	Fundamentals of Speech	3

Course Description
Introduces the study of speech fundamentals and critical thinking through frequent public speaking practice, including setting, purpose, audience, and subject.

Section 2. Modification(s) Requested

2.1. This modification will include:

Course Title change from Fundamentals of Speech to Foundations of Communication Effective term of the change: Summer 2023

2.2. Add justification for all changes noted above:

The SDBOR Communication Discipline Council has requested to change the course name for CMST 101 from Fundamentals of Speech to Foundations of Communication. The revised course name is more reflective of changes within the discipline and will provide some additional flexibility in terms of course content and curriculum. The switch to Foundations of Communication enables instructors to teach the course in a way that introduces students to the foundations of communication (organizational communication, interpersonal, public speaking, small groups, and more) while meeting the exact same SLOs. Changes like the proposed name change for CMST 101 follow best practices in the field of Communication Studies and are represented in substantive scholarship and work done by the National Communication Association (NCA) in their projects on Basic Course & General Education.

Section 3. Other Course Information

3.1. Will this course equate (i.e., be considered the same course for degree completion) with any other unique or common courses in the common course database?  Yes  No

Section 4. Department and Course Codes (Completed by University Academic Affairs)
